

Singing BOOK 4 Sherlock

In The End

Verse 1

I've had the letters, the phone calls, the notes.
I've had the "thank yous", but only in quotes.
I've had rejection, the sulks and depression.
Sometimes I feel my career's in regression.
There must be once I've made a good impression.

Verse 2

I've hit the bottom line, been wrecked on the rocks.
It's time to smile again and pull up my socks.
It's time to end the blues and go for audition.
It's time to realise those dreams I've been wishin',
As I will get there, in the end!

Verse 3

(Voice 1) Some day you'll see,
(Voice 2) Some day you'll see,
(Voice 1) Me on TV,
(Voice 2) Me on TV,
(Voice 1) And I will be,
(Voice 2) And I will be,
(Both) Top of the tree, believe me!

Verse 4

I'll hit the headlines, be there in the news.
I'll move the critics to write rave reviews.
You'll rush to read at your nearest bookstall,
They're on the pages right next to the football.
Before the concert at the Royal Albert Hall!

Verse 5

I'll sing for duchesses, for princes and queens,
And I'll be driven there in posh limousines.
I'll star in cinema and shows in the West End.
And take the leading role in "Cats" and "The Boyfriend",
As I will get there, in the end.
Believe me baby,
As I will get there, in the end!
In the end!
Yeah!

Chris Williams

BOOSEY & HAWKES

Boosey & Hawkes Music Publishers Ltd
www.boosey.com