Dmitri Shostakovich

Glory to Our Soviet Motherland
1943
for chorus and piano

Rayok
1948/57/late 60s
18 min
cantata for 4 basses, mixed choir, piano and narrator
4 bass soloists, small mixed choir and piano
(the composer states that the cast may be reduced to one versatile artist, taking the part of the chorus and all four roles in appropriate voices)

Loyalty op. 136
(Vyernost)
1970
25 min
Eight ballads for male chorus

Ten Poems on texts by Revolutionary Poets op. 88
1951
40 min
for chorus (SATB) a cappella and children's choir

World Premiere:

05 Dec 1970
Estonia Concert Hall, Tallin, Estonia
Estonian Academic Male Voice Choir
Conductor: Gustav Ernesaks
Availability: This work is available from Boosey & Hawkes for the UK, countries of the Commonwealth (excluding Canada) and the Republic of Ireland

World Premiere: 10 Oct 1951
Moscow Conservatory Bolshoi Hall, Moscow, USSR (former)
RSFSR Academic Russian Choir & Children's Choir
Conductor: Aleksandr Sveshnikov
Availability: This work is available from Boosey & Hawkes for the UK, countries of the Commonwealth (excluding Canada) and the Republic of Ireland